

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

January 12, 1999

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Mr. President. Members, while there's still a number of people who are on the floor, I want to explain a little bit about what we're going to do in the next couple of days. Tomorrow morning, we're going to address the permanent rules. That will start at ten o'clock tomorrow morning. As I understand it, there are three rule proposals coming from the Rules Committee. If need be, we'll go into the afternoon. We will break for lunch tomorrow, but we will go into the afternoon, if need be, to deal with the rules, so put that on and then we'll, depending on what the rest of the week looks like and what we've done with the rules, we'll adjust our schedule the rest of the week to do that. The first hearings will be a week from today and their notice has been sent out. Revisor bills will be dealt with, not this week, but the first part of next week. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We'll continue to stand at ease.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Members, if I could have your attention, Chair recognizes Speaker Kristensen.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Legislature, for your planning purposes this morning, we're going to be taking bills for about another ten minutes and then we'll plan to adjourn. So if you have bills in your office that need to get put in this morning or committees have hearing notices that they want to make sure gets put in the Journal today, in another ten minutes and then we'll move to adjourn. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like, at this time, to announce some visitors to the Nebraska Legislature. Joining us under the south balcony are Bruce Freeman from Gettysburg, Pennsylvania; Samuel...or Samwell Kiwelu from Tanzania; and Elirehema Silaa from Tanzania. Please join me in welcoming these individuals to the Nebraska Legislature. Thank you for being here.
